Nominative Statement

ICOPFO/ICOPFO nominates William Aulis, MD, to the IAPB Board of Trustees representing ICOPFO's membership category B.

Dr. Aulis has been a member of the Canadian Society of Ophthalmology and represents its membership to ICOPFO. He has been a member on ICOPFO's Board of Directors since 1999. He has served in key leadership roles on ICOPFO's Board, including Secretary of Education, Secretary of Certification, Secretary of International Relations, and President of ICOPFO for Canada. Dr. Aulis provided the vision and structure to expand the "Joint Commission on Ocular Health Personnel in Ophthalmology" to the "International Joint Commission on Ocular Health Personnel in Ophthalmology." He was also awarded ICOPFO's Distinguished Service Award in 1999.

As ICOPFO's President, he attended several IAPB conferences, served on the Human Resources Committee and presented at these conferences.

He has played a key leadership role in promoting ophthalmic allied personnel (OAP) education and certification, building relationships and assisting in elevating the standards and awareness of OAP globally. He has traveled extensively internationally and presented at conferences for ECU, FHOA, AFHO, SNEC, IOS, AAO, South Africa, and various European conferences (Ireland, Latvia). His work has significantly impacted the development of worldwide standards for educational curriculum, assessment of OAP knowledge and skills, and training program educational excellence standards.
